

Kate Roman, the Executive Director for the National Organization of End 68 Hours of Hunger visited our food storage and packing at All Saints Episcopal Church in Wolfeboro. (Pictured L to R, Eileen Leavitt, Kate Roman, Jan Brooks, Carol Simpson, John Brooks)

61st Edition October 2024 All That's News

Coordinators' Corner

This time of year, Jan, Carol, and Eileen attend meetings with Selectmen and Budget Committees in the Governor Wentworth School District towns as well as the County Commissioners and Delegation to request a donation and share our program's yearly data.

*****

Thank you to ...

- Peter Mann, for providing Halloween candy for the food bags.
- Goodhue Boat Co., for fundraising for our chapter
- Leone, McDonnell, and Roberts, CPAs for their food drive.
- Christine Japy, for volunteering to decorate a room at Christmas at the Castle for our chapter of End 68 Hours of Hunger

937 BAGS PACKED
since July 1st

Total bags packed in September

9/6	94
9/13	122
9/20	132
9/27	117

Total for September 465
Ave. each week 141

VOLUNTEER

Hours	Miles
234	535

Joan Scapicchio hosted volunteers Carol Simpson, Cristine Japy and Eileen Leavitt to create new ornaments for our Festival of Trees entry.

Thank you to the airMALE Cornholers, Hobbs Brewing Co., and Duelling Chefs for the October Fundraising Event for our chapter.

End 68 Hours Fall Potluck Social

Volunteers gathered at Jan and John Brooks to celebrate the start of the eleventh year of our program. Many thanks to Jan and John for hosting our gathering once again.

